Teen Event: Planting Summer Succulents

Sister Bay/Liberty Grove Library

Wed, June 21 1:00 - 3:00pm

Joy Lang from Jerry's Flowers is teaching how to plant your very own succulent in a tiny container & learn how to best care for them. This teen event will be held in our library garden on the Summer Solstice. Bring your own special container (mug, jar, teacup, etc.), or use one of ours. The materials & workshop are free. Supplies are available to the first 20 participants.

Your Community, Your History: Researching Local History

Fish Creek Library

Those who are unfamiliar with Door County's rich history can often find historical research & resources overwhelming. Door County Historical Museum Assistant Curator Matt Adelman will guide you through the process, proving that anyone with a curiosity for local history or genealogy can start their own journey into research with the right tools and resources.

Outdoor Game Days & Storytime

Egg Harbor Library

Thurs, June 29 10:00 - 1:00pm

Come to the Egg Harbor library to enjoy a game & a summer treat. Egg Harbor's therapy dogs, Nellie Bly & Alfie will visit at 10:30 for story time on the lawn. Try out the exciting hobby of metal detecting by searching for coins & metals on the lawn of the Kress Pavilion provided by Egg Harbor's Library of Things.
